Or.....To taste a mythical legendary sample, read the ebook: 'The King of Ireland's Son by Padraig Colum'

Enjoy!

This

beautiful poem was translated by students into French as they learn the value of legendary, mythical and traditional literature in the context of Well Being and the importance of a sense of place.

Woman of the Roads, by Pádraic Colum

O, to have a little house!
To own the hearth and stool and all!
The heaped-up sods upon the fire,
The pile of turf against the wall!

To have a clock with weights and chains
And pendulum swinging up and down!
A dresser filled with shining delph,
Speckled and white and blue and brown!

I could be busy all the day
Clearing and sweeping hearth and floor,
And fixing on their shelf again
My white and blue and speckled store!

"La vieille des chemins", Pádraic Colum
J'aimerais avoir une petite maison!
De Posséder le foyer, le tabouret et tout!
La tourbe sur le feu ouvert;
des mottes de gazon contre le mur!

Avoir une horloge avec des poids et des chaînes
Et le pendule qui se balance de haut en bas!
Une commode remplie de delph brillant,
Moucheté et blanc et bleu et marron!"

BVS Students in Ireland thoroughly enjoyed their Virtual Library visit experience on Friday 20/11 as part of our Erasmus Eurolegend Detectives library planning activity. The Alliance Francaise-Ambassade de France kindly provided our class with a Virtual Library Tour and workshop. Merci Beaucoup Guillaume pour votre gentillesse et comprehension. We very much look forward to our 'read aloud' legends and myths activity next week with the Alliance Francaise library team. Merci beaucoup a l'Ambassade de France et a l'Alliance Francaise Dublin.

Today the Spanish students visited the library of Sant Sadurní d'Anoia and one of the students who is doing training in the library explained them a Catalan Traditional legend.
